PRINCIPAL'S REPORT:

October was a busy month:

- There was a good turnout of over a hundred and thirty parents at the Nicholas Carlisle Workshop.
- The children enjoyed their workshops as well. Now we need to continue our work on No Bully.
- The Kepler's Book Fair just concluded. We do not yet know the total amount raised, but this was more for the enjoyment and benefit of the children.
- The results of the Iowa tests have been received. We are very pleased with our overall results.
 - Parents will be able to view a longitudinal graph showing three years growth for their child
 - A presentation will be made to the Board next month regarding the overall Iowa Test results
- FTA Computer Consultants are in the process of reviewing our technology infrastructure needs.
- The Annual School Appeal was held Sunday October 25th. Thank you for your efforts regarding our Appeal.

OTHER BUSINESS:

- Discussion of the By Laws was wrapped up including guidelines for future fundraisers. The final version of the By Laws will be submitted to the Archdiocese for approval.
- There is a new Fundraising Project Approval Form that will need to be submitted for future fundraisers.
